Although Kirby, the jeweler, was so thronged last Christmas with buyers, his store is a busy place just the same from morn till dewy eve. All find it a pleasure to see Kirby's beautiful goods, which are always up to date.

The Seth Thomas Clock company of Thomaston has posted notices that its factories will be run only eight hours a day four days a week until further notice. The shops have been running five days a week eight hours a day.

At the annual meeting of the New Haven Steamboat company these officers were elected: President, Chester W. Chapin of New York; treasurer, William Scott of New York; secretary, Richard Peck of New Haven; directors, J. A. Rumrill, Chester W. Chapin, Richard Peck.

Lovely indeed were the many notable floral pieces of original and unsurpassed designs made by Dickerman, the old and well known New Haven florist, who is supplying more floral pieces for funerals and flowers for weddings and receptions and other special occasions than ever before.

A multitude of fur shoulder capes have been sold by the Burgess Fur and Hat company this season. The stock is superb and in all styles, and no wonder the sales are large, so fine a stock and their low prices for the goods, owing to their being manufacturers, and their extensive business.

Mozart lodge, N. E. O. P., instituted last evening a sick benefit society as a branch, its members limited to Mozart lodge. The following officers were elected: President, Henry Staby; vice president, Fred Pfeiglar; secretary, Herman G. Heer; treasurer, R. Geier. The branch starts with sixty members and with seventeen applications for membership.

The third annual meeting of the Israel Putnam Lodge Funeral Aid association was held last night. The following officers were elected: President, Wallace E. Lindsley; vice president, William J.
 Mesker; recorder, Edward E. Mix; treasurer, Robert I. Couch; collector, J. P.
 Hunie; directors, Charles L. Hoogbikler, L. Knollmeyer, C. F. Treacartin, W. Everhart and W. H. Hopson.

The young ladies' normal class of Anderson gymnasium gave a sociable in the gymnasium last evening. About thirty couples were present. Among them being Dr. Anderson and wife, President Anderson and wife, Miss Bertha Ives, Miss Anna Richards, Miss Stella Raymond, Miss Eleanor Allen, Miss Ruth Harper, Miss Etta Weaden, Miss Fowler, Miss Maud Haight, Miss Dudley.

Turn in the Gold Tide.

Washington, Feb. 1.—A turn in the tide of gold exports occurred to-day and for the first day in several weeks the treasury gained instead of lost gold.
 The net gain for the day was $345,500, and it increased the reserve to $42,915, 467.

WALLINGFORD.

Chief Engineer Luke Martin received a telegram early last evening from Bridgeport stating that his brother, Charles Martin, had been killed by the cars in that city. Chief Engineer Martin started for Bridgeport on the 6:22 train. The body will be brought here for burial. No particulars of the affair were given in the dispatch. The deceased was well known here, where he had worked at intervals for many years at his trade as a tinner. He was about forty years of age and unmarried.

The third annual fancy dress sociable of the Ramblers' Cycle club in the armory last evening was one of the society events of the season. The armory was elegantly decorated and with the fine music and handsomely attired assembly of dancers presented a scene that was very attractive and pleasing. There were many couples from Meriden, New Haven and other adjoining places.
 Some of the costumes were costly and beautifully, especially so among the fair ladies. The efficient committee of arrangements are deserving of much praise for their untiring efforts to make the affair such a success as it proved to be.

James Morse has sold to T. H. Peck two lots, 100x150 feet, on Hill avenue in Yaleville. There seems to be quite a real estate boom in this flourishing village, and more changes in real estate have been recorded from there recently than in all the rest of Wallingford. The property that James Morse has been selling so many lots from was formerly the O'Connell property and was purchased by Mr. Morse at a low figure some time ago and he has already sold more than enough lots to cover the entire cost of the property, and he has more than two-thirds of it yet to dispose of. The electric road has proved a great boom to the "ville" and largely increased the value of property.

Captain John B. Zimmer, who lives down near Northford, and Miss Ellen O.
 Connors, for several years a domestic at Mrs. Samuel Simpson's, were married in the Holy Trinity church yesterday morning.

J. P. Stevenson brought home five dozen live quails, which he proposes to let loose in the woods, providing some of the other sportsmen are willing to chip in for expenses.

One of the saloonkeepers on the plains had a valuable setter dog which was ill and a friend recommended as a sure cure for all its ills Horne's cod distilled brandy, to be given after soaking bread with the liquor. The owner of the dog tried the cure and the result was the animal was soon free from all troubles and as dead as a door nail.

Miss Edith V. Smith writes from Fort Pierce, Fla., that the average temperature there at present is 74 degrees and that everybody is wearing summer clothing.

The W. R. C. supper advertised for next Wednesday evening in G. A. R. hall has been indefinitely postponed, as the hall will be in use that evening by the Foresters.

The lyceum of the high school elected as officers: Robert Stevens, president; Albert Chandler, vice president; Walter Valentine, secretary and treasurer; Miles Oddy, assistant secretary and treasurer.

Company K will have a smoker February 13 and invite Company H of Middletown as guests.

George Gardner mourns the loss of his overcoat, which was stolen at Hanover park on Thursday evening.

Miss Rose Manning and Miss Lillie Atwater start to-day for Brooklyn.

Dr. J. D. McLaughlin has received a supply of anti-tetanus. The cost is about $5 an ounce.

There were quite a number of speeders out again on the lake yesterday afternoon, including two from the Silver City, but they were not "in it" with "Dr. L." "Starmount" and other of the local trotters.

W. J. Peers of Center street is wrestling with a severe attack of the grip.

The favorite Irish comedian, Dan Mc-Carthy, in "The Bride of May" is booked for the opera Thursday evening, February 7.

W. S. Maitby, the bicyclist, and A. J.
 Maitby arrived here yesterday from New York.

MANY REQUESTS.

Will of the Late Francis Ives—A Number to New Haven Relatives.

Bridgeport, Feb. 1.—The will of the late Francis Ives was admitted to probate to-day. It is notable for its generous public bequests and some peculiar provisions. The entire estate amounts to $200,000.

Among the bequests are the following: Mrs. A. H. Whiting of New Haven, $10,000; Miss May Whiting, niece, and Charles Whiting, nephew, $5,000 cash, the bequest to Charles in addition being all the testator's wearing apparel and gold watch; to Ellen Whiting, widow of the late George R. Whiting, who was a nephew, $5,000; to the Fairfield County Law Library association, $1,000 and his law library; $1,000 each to the Baptist Protestant orphan asylum, Y. M. C. A. and Baptist Library association; to Ebenezer Baldwin of New Haven, $500; to the Congregational society at Mt. Carmel in Hamden, where the testator was born, $1,000; to Scroll and Keys society of Yale university, $1,000; to Bridgeport hospital, $5,000; to Mrs. M. L. Powers, who was his housekeeper for many years, and her daughter, Miss Daisy Powers, $15,000 and all the household furniture, with the privilege of occupying the premises for two years; to Andrew Potts, the coachman, $500 and a cottage and two lots in this city.

The executor is instructed to purchase from George K. Whiting two lots in the town of Hamden for Jasper Baldwin.

Mr. Ives was passionately fond of driving and loved his horses. There are two now in the stables too old for work and disabled. The will provides that they shall be kept until the spring after his death and then chloroformed to prevent them reaching owners who might ill-treat them.

Trolley Party.

Another gay sight was witnessed last evening by hundreds of people, the same being a trolley party excursion on the lines of the New Haven Street railway. The car was beautifully decorated, and colored fires brilliantly lit up the fiery chariot, and flags waved merrily as the jolly excursion party sped by. G. L. Lyman was one of the leading spirits of the affair.

GOOD SNAYING AGALS.

At Lakes Whitney and Saltonstall.
 A large space was cleared yesterday on both Lakes Whitney and Saltonstall by a force of men employed for the purpose by the New Haven Street Railway company, and consequently with suitable weather to-day big crowds of merry skaters will no doubt been seen at the lakes to-day and this evening.
 The ice is in excellent condition for skating.

NO TRACE OBTAINED.

Of the Men Who Scuttled the Vessel.
 Greenwich, Feb. 1.—Up to to-night no trace has been obtained of the men who boarded the sloop James Humphreys a month ago. The Humphreys belongs to Captain Edward Dayton, and he offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of the men who practically scuttled his vessel. Captain Dayton says he supposes he antagonized some oyster men of low degree, and that the damage to his sloop was done in revenge. Captain Dayton controls a large portion of the oyster beds between Greenwich Point and Calves Island.

The Income Tax.

An examination of the blanks—which must be filed by the 4th of March—shows that the details called for are numerous and exacting, so that in many cases careful analysis of accounts will be necessary. In this connection attention is called to the advertisement headed "Income Tax" in our financial columns. Mr. Shillito is strongly endorsed as a competent accountant and as thoroughly reliable for strict confidence.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief. 25c and 50c.
